IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT PATNA
Cr.Misc. No.28034 of 2008
KUNTI MURMU & ORS
Versus
STATE OF BIHAR
---

2. 25.9.2008 Heard the learned counsel for the petitioners and the State.

The petitioners are apprehending their arrest in connection with Azamnagar P.S. Case No.53 of 2007 for the major offences under section 307/34 of the Indian Penal Code.

The allegation is that the informant was assaulted by large number of persons; some of them are named and some of them are not named in the First Information Report. The petitioners are named in the First Information Report and the allegations against them are general in nature that these petitioners along with named accused persons assaulted by lathi on account of which two persons from the informant side sustained injuries. However, the injuries were found to be simple in nature. The other injured-the brother of the informant sustained grievous injuries, but those injuries are alleged to have been made by co-accused Mohan Murmu and Ruju Murmu and they have been allowed regular bail by this Court as stated in paragraph 15 of the petition. In the above circumstances, the learned counsel submits that the petitioners deserve to be allowed anticipatory bail.
